LECTURER

Joe Eagan referred to the December 2020 issue of the Columbian's and its excellent story on page 18 entitled "There is Always Hope " A parents recollection of their sons fatal diagnosis and miraculous healing. Joe, also reminded all of us that there has been 60 million abortions since 1973.

Joe also shared with everyone the incredible story of his daughters discussion during a Villanova college class about Joe and his wife's decision as parents to forgo an abortion option due to a very negative medical diagnosis of her during her mother's pregnancy. ( This excerpt does not do justice to Joe's heart felt description of what they as parents went through and the incredible development of their daughter )
